

PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD'S DECISION

APPELLANT: Dennis Williams
DOCKET NO.: 04-26093.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 05-06-406-050-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) are Dennis Williams, the appellant, by attorney Edwin Wittenstein of Worssek & Vihon LLP of Chicago and the Cook County Board of Review (board).

The subject property consists of a four-year-old, two-story single-family dwelling of masonry construction containing 6,332 square feet of living area and located in the lake shore area of New Trier Township, Cook County. The residence contains four and one half bathrooms, a full finished basement, air conditioning, fireplaces and a three-car garage.

The appellant's counsel appeared before the PTAB and submitted evidence claiming unequal treatment in the assessment process as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant offered eight suggested comparable properties located within one block of the subject. These properties consist of two-story single-family dwellings of masonry or stucco construction and range in age from four to nine years. The comparables have two to six bathrooms with half-baths and have full basements, six finished. All homes are air-conditioned and have fireplaces. All sites have two or three-car garages. The comparables contain between 5,033 and 8,426 square feet of living area and have improvement assessments ranging from $114,417 to $156,653 or from $17.60 to $26.27 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's assessment.

The board submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" wherein the subject's final improvement assessment of $271,320, or $42.85 per square foot of living area, was disclosed. In support of the subject's assessment, the board offered three suggested comparable properties located within a quarter mile of the subject. The comparables consist of two-story single-family dwellings of masonry construction and range in age from one to six years. The comparables contain three, four or six bathrooms with half baths, full finished basements; all have fireplaces and air conditioning and three-car garages. The comparables contain between 5,340 and 6,748 square feet of living area and have improvement assessments of between $252,616 and $294,959 or from $43.65 to $55.23 per square foot of living area. The board's evidence disclosed the subject was purchased in January of 2001 for $2,910,000. Based on this evidence, the board requested confirmation of the subject property's assessment.

After hearing the testimony and considering the evidence, the PTAB finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal. The Illinois Supreme Court has held that taxpayers who object to an assessment on the basis of lack of uniformity bear the burden of proving the disparity of assessment valuations by clear and convincing evidence. Kankakee County Board of Review v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 131 Ill.2d 1 (1989). The evidence must demonstrate a consistent pattern of assessment inequities within the assessment jurisdiction. After an analysis of the assessment data, the PTAB finds the appellant has overcome this burden.

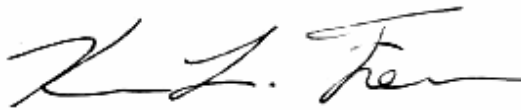

The PTAB finds the appellant's comparables one, seven and eight are the comparables more similar to the subject. These three properties have improvement assessments ranging from $19.00 to $26.27 per square foot of living area. The subject's per square foot improvement assessment of $42.85 is above this range of properties. The PTAB affords less weight to the remaining comparables because they are less similar to the subject in living area, location or lot size. After considering the purchase price, the subject's location and the differences in both parties' suggested comparables when compared to the subject property, the PTAB finds the evidence is sufficient to change the subject's assessed value.

As a result of this analysis, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds the appellant has adequately demonstrated that the subject dwelling was inequitably assessed by clear and convincing evidence and a reduction is warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
